

About Us

D-Link Corporation was founded in 1986 with a mission to bring high-quality computer networking solutions to consumers and businesses of all sizes. Twenty six years later, D-link has become a billion-dollar global enterprise with an extensive portfolio of award-winning networking products and services. D-Link continues to empower its customers in a fast-paced, evolving, and fiercely competitive environment.

After a quarter-century of successful innovation and spectacular growth, D-Link has become one of the world's leading technology providers. D-Link is focused on meeting its customers' needs using innovative technology to provide high-performance and cost-effective solutions that deliver better connectivity, security, efficiency, and cost savings for the home and office. D-Link is also pioneering green technologies that saves energy and offers greater reliability. With over 190 offices across 67 countries D-Link is able to better understand and deliver the needs of its customers and partners offering world-class care and support at local level.

D-Link (India) Limited is a part of D-Link Corporation and engaged in Marketing and Distribution of Networking products in India and SAARC Countries. Today, D-Link (India) Limited is a key market player in the country with a nationwide reach, robust product portfolio and superior services in India. D-Link product portfolio consists of 3G, Broadband, Structured Cabling, IP Surveillance, Network Security, Storage, Switching, Routing and Wireless LAN.

The Company is firmly committed towards delivering high quality, efficient and reliable Networking products, solutions and services. D-Link India today has 17 branch offices & 22 highly advanced service centers dotted across India to address the customer needs locally. D-Link India Ltd. also has a toll free support helpdesk for its customers.